

Société Chimique de France

Île-de-France

Call for applications
The French Chemical Society - Île-de-France Section
PhD Thesis Award 2022
Deadline for submission: April 30, 2022, midnight Paris time

In 2022, the Île-de-France Section of the French Chemical Society (SCF-IdF) is proud to organize the 6th edition of the SCF-IdF PhD thesis Award.

Six prizes in total of 650€ each will be awarded to young chemists for their work performed during their Ph.D in each of the following fields: “Organic chemistry”, “Inorganic, Mineral and Materials Chemistry”, “Theoretical, Physical or Analytical Chemistry”.

Criteria for the application:

- The candidate must have defended her/his PhD thesis between January 1, 2021 and December 31, 2021.
- The candidate must have been enrolled in a doctoral school of Île-de-France region.
- The candidate must be a SCF member.

Details on how to apply:

The application must be written in English and contain the following items.

- 1) A cover letter stating clearly the reasons for the application to this award
- 2) A full CV (2 pages maximum), containing the full list of publications (articles, book chapters, abstracts, patents), and communications as presenting author (poster, conferences)
- 3) A summary of the PhD work (2 pages maximum),
- 4) A support letter from the PhD laboratory,
- 5) A copy of the PhD defense report,
- 6) The Excel file attached fulfilled,
- 7) A commitment of the candidate to freely present his PhD work at the Young Talented Chemists Day which will take place in September (date and modality - virtual vs presence, to be defined).

Application forms have to be sent as a single PDF file (size < 2 MB) named “nameofthecandidate_JTCaward.pdf” by email to:

contact-idf@societechimiquedefrance.fr

Deadline is set on April 30, 2022 midnight (Paris time). (Applications submitted later will not be eligible.)

Timetable of the application procedure:

- 1) End of application: April 30, 2022
- 2) Evaluation of applications by the office of the SCF-IdF Section: after mid-June 2022
- 3) Selection and shortlist announcement: before end of June 2022 (no evaluation report will be provided)
- 4) Award competition in Paris during a SCF-IdF symposium in September (date and modality to be defined)