Possible extension: 8th EuCheMS conference on N Ligands, Cassis June 3rd to 7th

The Dijon meeting will be hold just before the 8th EuCheMS conference on N ligands, Cassis, France, 2024.

Prof. Claude P. Gros is a member of the International Board. He was Chairman, in 2015, of the 6th EuCheMS conference on N ligands, hold in Beaune (France).

He will invite colleagues from different European countries (and USA) to register and to attend the Dijon Åsgard Horizon Meeting that is going to be hold just 2 days before the Cassis's meeting (with the week-end in-between to let the participants travel from Dijon to Cassis by TGV).

The conference aims to bring together scientists, academic and industrial attendees from around the globe to provide all aspects of the role of nitrogen ligands, following the spirit and style of the seventh preceding conferences during its 32-year-long history. The program will include 5 plenary, 9 keynote, and 9 invited lectures delivered by top-tier international scientists. 40 Oral contributions, two flash presentation sessions and one poster session will be also scheduled.

Be aware that Cassis is very popular with tourists from June onwards, so please book your accommodation as early as possible

Prof. Claude P. Gros and Prof. Abhik Ghosh are actually the Guests Editors of a:

In Press: French/Nordic special issue on Materials and Coordination Chemistry in Comptes Rendus Chimie

This special issue aims to highlight French and Nordic research on materials and coordination chemistry.

Guests Editors:

Prof. Abhik Ghosh, The Arctic University, UiT, Tromsø, Norway

Prof. Claude P. Gros, Université de Bourgogne, Dijon, France

10 articles are expected for this special issue

Comptes Rendus Chimie

Comptes Rendus Chimie

French/Nordic Special Issue on Materials and Coordination Chemistry

Dear Colleagues,

We are writing to you as Guest Editors of a Special Issue of the open-access diamond electronic journal Comptes Rendus Chimie highlighting French and Nordic research on materials and coordination chemistry. Both French-Nordic collaborative papers and papers from individual countries are welcome. These should lead to the identification of common scientific interests among researchers based in the Nordic countries (Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway, Sweden) and France, which in turn should foster future collaborations and exchange of ideas as well as mobility of young or senior researchers.

We welcome short communications, full papers, and review articles. The deadline for the receipt of manuscripts is September 1st, 2023 (no further extension), but early submissions would be much appreciated. Publication is provisionally scheduled for fall time.

All papers will be peer-reviewed according to the standard Comptes Rendus Chimie practice. There are no templates for the articles. There are no publication charges and no charge for color graphics. See: <https://comptes-rendus.academie-sciences.fr>

We would be grateful if you could let us know rapidly about your intention to contribute. Instructions for manuscript preparation and online submission can be found at:

https://comptes-rendus.academie-sciences.fr/chimie/page/soumettre-votre-article_fr/

Please indicate in your cover letter and upon submission (you will have to select the French/Nordic issue option) that your paper is intended for the:

French/Nordic Special Issue on Materials and Coordination Chemistry.

We hope you will be able to submit a manuscript to highlight (or initiate) collaborations between France and Nordic countries. The website is OPEN. Many thanks in advance for your precious collaboration.

Sincerely yours,

Prof. Abhik Ghosh, The Arctic University, UiT, Tromsø, Norway

Prof. Claude P. Gros, Université de Bourgogne, Dijon, France
